Iowa Code Chapter 321J.22 (Operating While Intoxicated) requires the completion of the following for reinstatement of a driver's license:

- Complete the 12-hour Iowa Course for Drinking and Driving (DUI)
- Complete a substance abuse evaluation at a substance abuse program licensed under Chapter 125 and follow any treatment recommendations of the evaluation.
- Pay a civil penalty, reinstatement fee, pass required examinations, and any additional requirements.

Some students may be assigned to take a residential weekend program in lieu of jail requirements [Section 321J.2, subsection 2, paragraph a, subparagraph (1), 2003 Code Supplement].

PRAIRIE RIDGE Driver Education Diversion Program (PRIDE)

Providing comprehensive prevention, intervention, and treatment services to the communities of North Iowa and beyond.

Weekend/OWI Jail Program:

The Prairie Ridge Weekend Jail/OWI Program is a program designed to fulfill both the Iowa Department of Transportation (DOT) education requirements and the court-mandated jail time for Operating While Intoxicated (OWI) offenses.

In order to attend this program, participants must have been court ordered by a judge and take the program within the court ordered timeframe.

As a participant, you will receive the PRIME For Life education required by the State of Iowa in order to be eligible to reapply for your driver's license.

This program begins on Friday with registration at 5:00 p.m. Participants will receive four hours of PRIME For Life education on Friday, eight hours on Saturday, and eight hours on Sunday. The program will end promptly at 5:00 p.m. on Sunday.

Location:

This program is held at the Mason City Holiday Inn Express:
3041 4th Street SW, Mason City, IA
Phone: 641-424-1200

Programming:

During the program, participants will receive 20 hours of PRIME For Life education. PRIME For Life is the only education curriculum approved by the State of Iowa. It is an evidence-based program recognized by the National Registry of Evidence-Based Programs and Practices (NREPP).

For more information on the program, please visit www.askpri.org.

Cost:

This program costs $565. Included in the cost of this program is the $180 DOT-mandated education fee, two nights of hotel rooms, and meals for the weekend. Participants may request a single room for $695. *Fees subject to change.

Frequently Asked Questions:

- How will the court and DOT be notified of my completion?

Your instructor will notify the courts and DOT of your successful completion of the program within three business days after your completion.

- Will I be given breaks?

Breaks are given every 1-1.5 hours during the education portion of the program.

- Will I be allowed to leave the hotel or my hotel room?

Since this program also serves as jail time, as ordered by a judge, all participants are required to remain on site the entire weekend and remain in their hotel rooms unless instructed otherwise by Prairie Ridge staff members.

- How can I pay?

Prairie Ridge accepts MasterCard, Visa and Discover as well as money orders and cash. Payment is due at the time of registration. Notice will not be sent to the DOT or court until payment is validated.
